SIG Insurance Services, LLC Recognized by Safeco Insurance™ for Excellent Performance

Bryan, Texas June 6, 2011 – Safeco Insurance™ announced that SIG Insurance Services, LLC has been named to its H.K. Dent Society, the company’s elite agency recognition program.

The H.K. Dent Society, named for the company’s founder, was designed to recognize and reward agents for their partnership, performance and loyalty to Safeco. This special group represents Safeco’s very best agents and partners. Each year, fewer than 10% of Safeco agents will qualify for this distinct honor.

“Our agency has worked hard to serve our customers and community,” said Richard Pollard of SIG Insurance Services, LLC. “It’s an honor to be recognized by Safeco as being one of its top agent partners.”

“The H.K. Dent Society provides well-deserved recognition for our best agents,” said John Mileski, Safeco senior vice president and manager, distribution. “But just as important, it also features valuable tools to help our partners better serve customers.”

Hawthorne K. Dent founded the General Insurance Company of America in 1923. Safeco was created from the General in 1953 to provide better solutions for independent agents in an increasingly competitive insurance market.

Today, nearly 90 years later, Safeco remains focused on working with independent agents, and the H.K. Dent Society, which bears the founder’s name, is designed to be a distinguished honor for agent excellence.
